Subject: INVITATION TO JOIN
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RESEARCH IN EDUCATIONAL SCIENCES (ICRES) 2022
May 30-31, 2022

Dear Dr. Rocafort:

Salutem et Pacem et Felicitatem!

In pursuit of the realization of one of the threefold functions—research area, the College of Education, Mindanao State University-General Santos City, is cordially inviting your faculty members/researchers to join us in the above-mentioned international conference with the theme, “Redesigning the Educational System in Alternative Delivery Platforms: Moving towards Post-Pandemic” on May 29-31, 2022. The faculty members from your department who choose to participate in the conference will be prioritized for the available slots.

This conference aims to bring together some of the top academia, basic education teachers, higher education faculty members, school leaders, student-researchers, and other educational practitioners worldwide to shed light in the spectrum of research innovations and offer discussions in the redesigning of academic deliverables in the educational sciences.

The conference organizers highly appreciate your magnanimous support and presence for our virtual conference which will undoubtedly take the conference to greater heights and strengthen both our university’s international linkages. The organizers hope that this knowledge-sharing platform can contribute to all participants’ repertoire for new insights so that they can carve out a niche in their respective disciplines as research innovators and educational practitioners as they redesign their educational systems on alternative delivery platforms in preparation for a post-pandemic world.

I attached the promotional poster for further details about the conference. Should you have any concern, please message me in my email address: cathymae.toquero@msugensan.edu.ph

I am looking forward for your favorable response regarding this invitation.

Sincerely,

CATHY MAE D. TOQUERO
