THRU:
MARIA ISABEL ROSIOS CUNANAN
REPS, REGIONAL NAMCYA FOCAL PERSON

Dear Dr. Carlito Rocafort,

Auspicious greetings! It is with great pleasure to inform you that 2023 marks the 50th year of the National Music Competitions for Young Artists, Inc. (NAMCYA). NAMCYA, one of Cultural Center of the Philippines' (CCP) Resident Programs, has been instrumental in discovering and nurturing young Filipino musicians for the past forty nine years. We would also like to share with you the great news that by virtue of Republic Act no. 11915, NAMCYA is designated as the National Youth Development Program for Music.

We would like to congratulate Region XII for this year's proclaimed National Winners of the Traditional Music Category:

1. Antonio D. Pendatun Elementary School, Upper Labay High School, Sansapan Elementary School and I. Solis Elementary School Music Ensemble
2. Batomelong Elementary School and Samboang-Ngilay High School Music Ensemble
3. Bagong Silang Elementary School, Bagong Silang High School, Datu B. Balunto National High School and Tbag Elementary School Music Ensemble

and Semi Finalists from Region XII:

Junior Rondalla

1. General Santos City National High School Rondalla
2. GSC SPED Integrated School Junior Rondalla
3. Fatima National High School Rondalla
4. Labangal National High School Junior Rondalla
5. South Cotabato Family Rondalla

Children's Choir

1. General Santos City Children's Choir
2. General Santos City SPED Integrated School Tinig Bahaghari Chorale

In line with this, may we invite you to the following activities?

1. August 25 - Traditional Music Workshop
Venue: Greenleaf hotel Notre Dame of Dadiangas University Auditorium
1:30-5:00 PM
2. August 26 - Semifinals Competitions (Junior Rondalla, Senior Choir, Children's Choir)
Venue: The Word for Everyone International Ministries
9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Many thanks for all your help and support. Praying for an affirmation from your good office.

Truly Yours,
